Brescia University Launches New Online Courses

Louisville, KY, January 7, 2005. Dr. Denzil Edge, President/CEO of Learning House, Inc. is pleased to announce that Learning House, Inc. is partnering with Brescia University on the development of new online courses. On January 12th, Brescia University will initiate its new online courses in Social Work. Brescia University also plans to offer its ministry formation program online in the upcoming Fall 2005 semester. At this time, it is the only undergraduate ministry program accredited by United States Catholic Conference Commission. Father Joseph Merkt, Interim Associate Professor and Director of the Ministry Formation Program, says, "Brescia's Ministry program will celebrate its 20th anniversary in 2005-2006 and it is the oldest undergraduate ministry program in the United States. The partnership with Learning House, Inc. will bring the program into the 21st century. This program's academic success then can be accessed by people who desperately need it and can grow to reach other church communities nationally and internationally." Adding to that, Dr. Denzil Edge, states, "It will be a pleasure to work with Brescia University and help them to serve areas globally."

About Brescia University

Brescia University is a coeducational Catholic institution founded by the Ursuline Sisters of Mount Saint Joseph in 1950 in Owensboro, Kentucky. The university offers certificates, associate, baccalaureate and master degrees through semester and time-shortened programs of higher education in the Ursuline tradition. Brescia emphasizes the liberal arts and prepares its traditional and non-traditional students for successful careers and for service to others.
