IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Hannibal-LaGrange College Starts Online Campus September 13, 2004

Louisville, KY, August 23, 2004. Dr. Denzil Edge, President/CEO of The Learning House, Inc. is pleased to announce that The Learning House, Inc. is partnering with Hannibal-LaGrange College on the development of an online campus. On September 13, 2004 Hannibal-LaGrange College will initiate its online campus with a course in Early Childhood Special Education, a specialty area that fills a critical void within special education. Hannibal-LaGrange College also looks to bring a nursing program online in the upcoming Spring 2005 semester and potentially to have several general education courses online as well for its ADVANCE program. Dr. Breland, Vice-President of Academic Affairs, says, "I am pleased that Hannibal-LaGrange College can help equip more teachers in special education and I appreciate the assistance Learning House is giving us in responding to this need." Adding to that, Dr. Denzil Edge, states, "Hannibal-LaGrange College is strategically located in the heartland of the United States. Its faculty is well-prepared to develop online courses that meet the learning needs of teachers, nurses and business personnel in their region. The Learning House, Inc. is pleased to team with Hannibal La-Grange College in building a successful online campus equipped to deliver the best online programs in the nation."

About Hannibal-LaGrange College

Hannibal-LaGrange is a four-year liberal arts college fully accredited by the Higher Learning Commission and a member of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools. Founded in 1858, the college is situated on 110 acres of scenic hills and woods on the bluffs above the Mississippi River in Hannibal, Missouri, just 100 miles north of St. Louis. Hannibal-LaGrange offers a diverse selection of academic opportunities, including more than 30 majors on the baccalaureate level. In addition, several pre-professional programs, including pre-engineering, are offered on the associate level.
