The Learning House announces extension of partnership with IntraLearn Software Corporation

Louisville, KY, January 6, 2005 Dr. Denzil Edge, President/CEO of The Learning House, Inc. is pleased to announce the extension of the partnership with IntraLearn Software Corporation. Jerry Goguen, President of IntraLearn had this to say about the partnership, "IntraLearn is pleased to have the opportunity to partner with Learning House, Inc. to offer eLearning services to small colleges. We believe that the IntraLearn partnership will assist Learning House, Inc. in providing even better services to its clients." With the new version of IntraLearn software, Learning House, Inc. will be better equipped to serve their clients with the latest technology. New features include a new and improved layout for students to register quickly and easily. Instructors can export data into Microsoft Excel and other grading features have been added. Also instructors can now create surveys and view results with percentages. "Our clients will take full advantage of these great new features," said Dr. Denzil Edge. "Our clients have enjoyed the user friendly software and making their educational programs more accessible to students worldwide."
